

Asbury Blues

Contact Information: Director.N.flanagan@asburychristianpreschool.org

A Child of God is Thankful

"Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you."

As we enter the holiday season I am reminded of all the joys, thankfulness, kindness and giving that is wrapped around us throughout these next couple of months. My favorite time of year is now. As we enter this next season, please remember that kindness, giving, compassion and support goes a long way. Even greeting others with a quick smile (masks make this difficult) or a nod of the head, can change someone's outlook on their day. I look forward to our journey together through these upcoming months and into the new year.

"Give, and it will be given to you. Good measure, pressed down, shaken together, running over, will be put into your lap. For with the measure you use it will be measured back to you." ~ Luke 6:38

Happening this month!

Our halls and classroom windows are all adorned with Fall displays and representations of some favorite Halloween stories and festivities. Throughout the month of November, our classes will be focusing on kindness, thankfulness and exploring family community and culture.

Our two's class will be talking about their feelings and how they relate to others. They will be focusing on family unity. Our three year olds will be discussing the meaning of Thanksgiving while focusing on kindness and family dynamics. Our four's and Pre-K classes will be studying families around the world as well as continuing to grasp letter/sound concepts and focus on math terms such as less/than, more/than. Our extended day students have been busy decorating their classroom with wonderful art and creative expression.

We will have two events this month. Franklin's Toys will host a fundraiser and Asbury will receive a percentage of all toy sales that are conducted from online sales for the week of Monday November 15-Friday November 19. Please look out for the flyer and link to their online catalogue which will be on each classroom Shutterfly account.

Inclement Weather Days and Communication

With our first inclement weather day behind us, I wanted to send out a reminder of ways we communicate information to our 175 preschool families and 60 Clubhouse families. As stated in our parent handbook, we will always follow AACPS's decision on the first day of a weather event. We will post on WBAL, our Facebook page and our school website. As a courtesy this time, we emailed all of our primary and secondary parent accounts to be sure that the information reached as many people as possible in a timely manor. If you did not receive the information, we apologize. Our parent handbook details many of our daily procedures and is a great resource if you have any questions. Please also do not hesitate to email office@asburychristianpreschool.org with any questions you may have.

Thanksgiving Chapel

Our Thanksgiving Chapel will take place on Monday November 22nd and Tuesday November 23rd. Each class will perform a selection of songs for their parents. We will be following strict COVID-19 procedures in order to hold this event while keeping everyone as safe as possible. The times for each class performance will be sent home on a flyer with procedures. You can also find this information on your class Shutterfly account.

UPCOMING DATES

November 15-19-Franklin's Toys Fundraiser . November 22/23-Thanksgiving Chapel . November 24-26-School Closed

Inside Story Headline

Caption describing picture or graphic.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words.

The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless.

You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

"To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here."

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words.

Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context.

Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols.

Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

Think about your article and ask yourself if

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 150-200 words. One benefit of using your newsletter as a promotional tool is that you can reuse content from other marketing materials, such as press releases, market studies, and reports.

While your main goal of distributing a newsletter might be to sell your product or service, the key to a successful newsletter is making it useful to your readers.

A great way to add useful content to your newsletter is to develop and write your own articles, or include a calendar of upcoming events or a special offer that promotes a new product.

You can also research articles or find "filler" articles by accessing the World Wide Web. You can write about a variety of topics but try to keep your articles short.

Much of the content you put in your newsletter can also be used for your Web site. Microsoft Publisher offers a simple way to convert your newsletter to a Web publication. So, when you're finished writing your newsletter, convert it to a Web site and post it.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 100-150 words. The subject matter that appears in newsletters is virtually endless. You can include stories that focus on current technologies or innovations in your field.

You may also want to note business or economic trends, or make predictions for your customers or clients.

If the newsletter is distributed internally, you might comment upon new procedures or improvements to the business. Sales figures or earnings will show how your business is growing.

Some newsletters include a column that is updated every issue, for instance, an advice column, a book review, a letter from the president, or an editorial. You can also profile new employees or top customers or vendors.

"To catch the reader's attention, place an interesting sentence or quote from the story here."

Inside Story Headline

This story can fit 75-125 words. Selecting pictures or graphics is an important part of adding content to your newsletter. Think about your article and ask yourself if the picture supports or enhances the message you're trying to convey. Avoid selecting images that appear to be out of context. Microsoft Publisher includes thousands of clip art images from which you can choose and import into your newsletter. There are also several tools you can use to draw shapes and symbols. Once you have chosen an image, place it close to the article. Be sure to place the caption of the image near the image.

Caption describing picture or graphic.

Organization

Business Name

Primary Business Address
Your Address Line 2
Your Address Line 3
Your Address Line 4

Phone: 555-555-5555
Fax: 555-555-5555
E-mail:

Your business tag line here.

This would be a good place to insert a short paragraph about your organization. It might include the purpose of the organization, its mission, founding date, and a brief history. You could also include a brief list of the types of products, services, or programs your organization offers, the geographic area covered (for example, western U.S. or European markets), and a profile of the types of customers or members served.

It would also be useful to include a contact name for readers who want more information about the organization.

Back Page Story Headline

This story can fit 175-225 words. If your newsletter is folded and mailed, this story will appear on the back. So, it's a good idea to make it easy to read at a glance.

A question and answer session is a good way to quickly capture the attention of readers. You can either compile questions that you've received since the last edition or you can summarize some generic questions that are frequently asked about your organization.

A listing of names and titles of managers in your organization is a good way to give your newsletter a personal touch. If your organization is small, you may want to list the names of all employees.

If you have any prices of standard products or services, you can include a listing of those here.

You may want to refer your readers to any other forms of communication that you've created for your organization.

You can also use this space to remind readers to mark their calendars for a regular event, such as a breakfast meeting for vendors every third Tuesday of the month, or a biannual charity auction.

If space is available, this is a good place to insert a clip art image or some other graphic.

Caption describing picture or graphic.